

Filling the world together

Give me a world with good coffee, add a giant scoop of tolerance and understanding and I will give you warmth and strength, reminders that someone loves and cares about you

Give me a world filled with art overflowing just like pure childhood joy and I will give you bread & cheese, unicorns, bubbles

Give me a world where there is sharing and caring, books, and new experiences and I will add laughter, puppies, horses, otters

Give me a cancer-free world and healthy kiddos and I will give you a world full of safe and happy spaces and places for everyone

Give me a spark of curiosity and I will give you empathy, kindness, peace, compassion tall trees, mushrooms

Give me a world full of hugs, and warm and fuzzy blankets and I will give you music for your slow, cozy mornings and gentle rain
